Details of the contract

A custody account called G-Deposito will be set up for the Applicant(s) as a form of collective safekeeping in Swiss dutyfree warehouses, in which gold is stored and traded in the form of certified gold granules of 999.9 purity.

The annual custody fee is 0.8 g gold (up to 10 oz.) or 1.5 g gold (from 10 oz.) and is calculated semi-annually in advance and deducted from the portfolio. For customers domiciled in Switzerland, value added tax will be charged in addition. This fee covers any number of barter transactions, as well as the electronic retrieval of the custody account statement.

For safekeeping, 0.7 % or 0.6 % (from 1/2 talent) of the gold held in custody for the Applicant is charged annually and deducted from the holdings every six months for the previous six-month period. For clients domiciled in Switzerland, value added tax will be charged in addition.

The aforementioned conditions depend on the amount of the selected target investment amount (TIA) and the completion of the minimum deposits, which are specified in each case in the G-Deposito Purchase Agreement. Subsequent increases of the TIA including completion of the minimum deposits will automatically lead to an adjustment of the fees as of the following month in case of overruns. Each TIA increase is associated with the calculation of the agreed commission of a standard 3.5 %, or from 1/2 talent 1.5 %.

Target investment amount (TIA)	Minimum deposit	Custody fee p. a.	Safekeeping fee p. a.
5 ounces or 10 ounces	10% of the price of the TIA at the time of application	0.8 g gold	0.7 % of the gold holding from 10 ounces	10% of the price of the TIA at the time of application	1.5 g gold	0.7 % of the gold holding from 1/2 talent (500 ounces)	30% of the price of the TIA at the time of application	1.5 g gold	0.6 % of the gold holding

Excluded from the revocation
